

This is Gladys Pugh, your sports organiser. What a packed programme we have for you today. At nine o'clock by the olympic-sized swimming pool we have the blindfold bicycle race, followed by the "Who Can Eat The Most Cake Without Being Sick" competition. We haven't forgotten our younger campers, as we have the "Whose Baby's Got The Biggest Head" competition at ten o'clock in the Mickey Mouse Grotto and the Spaghetti Eating contest in the canteen at eleven. Our older campers should assemble in the Hawaiian Ballroom at ten thirty sharp for the Team Gurning contest. There's a Western theme in the restaurant this lunchtime, as Fred Larkin, our cordon blue chef, has prepared for you baked beans in barbeque sauce. (Pause) With sausages. Hi-de-hi!

"Ho-de-ho!"
